

The Present Tense

- Finish the sentences

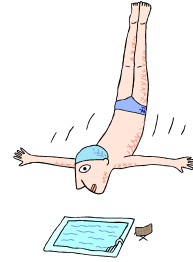

I go to the pool and I swim.

You _____ to the pool and you _____.

He _____ to the pool and he _____.

We _____ to the pool and we _____.

They _____ to the pool and they _____.

I eat a cake because I am hungry.

You _____ a cake because you _____ hungry.

She _____ a cake because she _____ hungry.

We _____ a cake because we _____ hungry.

They _____ a cake because they _____ hungry.

I like to walk in the woods.

You _____ to walk in the woods.

The dog _____ to walk in the woods.

We _____ to walk in the woods.

They _____ to walk in the woods.

In class, I look and I listen.

In class, you _____ and you _____.

In class, Jane _____ and she _____.

In class, we _____ and we _____.

In class, my friends _____ and they _____.

Draw a picture of you in class, listening very carefully.

I have measles and I am ill.

You _____ measles and you _____ ill.

Penny _____ measles and she _____ ill.

We _____ measles and we _____ ill.

They _____ measles and they _____ ill.

Objective: To learn the present tense of verbs.

Answers

You go to the pool and you swim.

He goes to the pool and he swims.

We go to the pool and we swim.

They go to the pool and they swim.

You eat a cake because you are hungry.

She eats a cake because she is hungry.

We eat a cake because we are hungry.

They eat a cake because they are hungry.

You like to walk in the woods.

The dog likes to walk in the woods.

We like to walk in the woods.

They like to walk in the woods.

In class, you look and you listen.

In class, Jane looks and she listens.

In class, we look and we listen.

In class, my friends look and they listen.

You have measles and you are ill.

Penny has measles and she is ill.

We have measles and we are ill.

They have measles and they are ill.