

Putting sentences in order

Here are three short stories. The sentences in them are in the wrong order.
Write the sentences in the correct order so that each story makes sense:

Wrong order:

1. He decided to get out of bed and look out of the window.
2. In the sudden brightness he saw a rabbit, startled by the light.
3. James was woken up suddenly, by a loud crash of thunder.
4. As he looked out over the dark field, there was a flash of lightning.
5. When lightning struck again the rabbit had gone, probably back to its burrow.

Correct order:

1. She looked in the fridge to see what vegetables she had.
2. She served up the piping hot soup which Mr Gale wolfed down.
3. Mrs Gale thought a hot soup would be just the thing on such a cold day.
4. Outside it was blowing a blizzard.
5. She fried the onions and added water, leeks and potatoes.

1. He ran around wildly with the balloon bobbing behind him in the wind.
2. In the park there was a man selling coloured balloons.
3. She bought him another one, and told him to hang on to it this time.
4. Tom and his mum went for a walk.
5. The wind blew it into a holly bush and it burst on the spikey leaves.
6. They then walked home.
7. Suddenly he tripped over and let go!
8. Tom looked at his mum, tears in his eyes.
9. Tom chose a red one.
