The Essex 11+ Programme – Boost: Preview

This preview is designed to show you in some depth the work we'll go through in this course. It covers all elements of the Essex 11 Plus exam.

Who is this course right for?

- The course is designed to fully prepare pupils for the Essex 11 Plus exam and should be central to the work of any child preparing at home.
- It is also very useful for any child using a tutor or going to a tuition centre. Many Tutors use our courses as the basis of their work, especially for setting homework. If your tutor doesn't give homework then this course will fill the gap.
- The programme is perfect if your child has 6 15 weeks to go until the exam. It is delivered in 10 parts. Ideally a week would be spent on each part, however the programme could be completed more intensively in 6 weeks, or in a more relaxed way over 15 weeks.

Why is the course so successful?

- 11 plus tests are weighted towards literacy skills over any other skill area.
- 60% of the marks focus on literacy skills. Our course is similarly weighted to reflect this.
- The course is fully planned and structured, which makes life much easier for parents than using books alone.
- Revision and tests are gradually introduced so that children build their skills and confidence as they go.
- While the course is regularly updated, the core of it has been used for many years with proven success.
- Our course has been specifically tailored to prepare you for the 11 Plus test in the Essex area.
- For example, our course closely mirrors the difficult comprehension texts that the Essex test is know for. It also focuses heavily on creative writing, something which carries a high percentage of the marks in the Essex test.

Using Colons

- A colon is a punctuation mark that we can use to introduce the items in a list.
- For example: 'To bake a cake you will need: butter, flour, eggs and milk.'
- We use commas to separate each item in the list. Then we use the connective 'and' before the last item.
- You will often see colons used in ingredient lists and sometimes in instruction manuals.

Exercise 1:

The colons in the sentences below have been used in the wrong places. Re-write the sentences and put the colons in the correct place. An example has been given.

Edgar Evans

Edgar Evans was born on March 7th 1876, near Rhossili in Wales. At fifteen he joined the Royal Navy. A few years later, while serving on HMS Majestic, he met a young naval lieutenant, Robert Falcon Scott. It was a fateful meeting.

In 1911, Captain Scott, by now a famous polar explorer, wanted to be the first man to reach the South Pole. The Norwegian, Roald Amundsen, had the same intention. Scott sailed south with a large team, and after weeks of training and setting up food dumps along the intended route, he selected his team to make the final race to the pole. He chose his four best men - Petty Officer Evans, Lt. Henry Bowers, Capt. Titus Oates, and Dr. Edward Wilson. Scott described Evans as a 'giant worker'. "He is responsible for the equipment - every sledge, every sledge-fitting, the tents, sleeping-bags, harnesses, everything. He is a big man, strong, resourceful and always cheerful so he boosts our morale."

Eleven weeks after setting off from base camp, the five men reached the South Pole on 17 January 1912. They had man-hauled their sledge, with their food, tents and equipment on board, across hundreds of miles of rutted ice and snow. Imagine their despair when they saw the companions, walked out into the treezing night never to be seen again. "The party was now three and there was no food left. The next food depot was only eleven miles away but the weather was closing in. Trapped in their tent by a ferocious blizzard, with temperatures plummeting, they could make no further progress.

The bodies of Scott and his companions were discovered by a search party on 12 November 1912 and his diary and their records retrieved. Their final camp became their tomb; a high cairn of snow was erected over it, topped by a roughly fashioned cross. In January 1913, before Terra Nova left for home, a large wooden cross was made by the ship's carpenters, inscribed with the names of the lost party and Tennyson's line from his poem Ulysses: "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield". It was erected as a permanent memorial on Observation Hill, overlooking Hut Point.

A Plague in the little Norman church at Rhossili reads: "To the Glory of God and in memory of Edgar Evans 1st Class Petty Officer, R.N., and a native of this Parish, who perished on the 17 February 1912, when returning from the South Pole with the Southern Party of the British Antarctic Expedition under the command of Captain Robert Falcon Scott.

THE WONDERFUL WIZARD OF OZ – L. Frank Baum

This extract comes from the novel that the popular film, The Wizard of Oz, was based on. This is a story about Dorothy and her dog Toto, who are carried away in a cyclone and end up in Oz. In your extract, the cyclone has just hit Dorothy's prairie in Kansas.

Dorothy lived in the midst of the great Kansas prairies, with Uncle Henry, who was a farmer, and Aunt Em, who was the farmer's wife. Their house was small, for the lumber to build it had to be carried by wagon many miles. There were four walls, a floor and a roof, which made one room; and this room contained a rusty looking cookstove, a cupboard for the dishes, a table, three or four chairs, and the beds. Uncle Henry and Aunt Em had a big bed in one corner, and Dorothy a little bed

When Dorothy, who was an orphan, first came to her, Aunt Em had been so startled by the child's laughter that she would scream and press her hand upon her heart whenever Dorothy's merry voice reached her ears; and she still looked at the little girl with wonder that she could find anything to laugh at.

Uncle Henry never laughed. He worked hard from morning till night and did not know what joy was. 25 He was grey also, from his long beard to his rough boots, and he looked stern and solemn, and rarely spoke.

It was Toto that made Dorothy laugh, and saved her from growing as grey as her other surroundings. Toto was not grey; he was a little black dog, with long silky hair and small black eyes that twinkled merrily on either side of his funny, wee nose. Toto played all day long, and Dorothy played with him, and loved him dearly.

Today, however, they were not playing. Uncle Henry sat upon the doorstep and looked anxiously at the sky, which was even greyer than usual. Dorothy stood in the door with Toto in her arms, and looked at the sky too. Aunt Em was washing the dishes.

From the far north they heard a low wail of the wind, and Uncle Henry and Dorothy could see where the long grass bowed in waves before the coming storm. There now came a sharp whistling in the air from the south, and as they turned their eyes that way they saw ripples in the grass coming from that direction also.

Suddenly Uncle Henry stood up.

Developing and Revising Descriptions Banks

We know that it is tempting to write piece after piece hoping for improvement.

While writing and revising your work does help, it is the creative content which has most effect on marks.

The best way to improve creative content is by having a very good descriptions bank at the front of your mind. This means you could write a couple of sentences auickly to describe a wood crying a tall father or a garage (as exc Creative Writing

- The descriptions use interesting turns of phrase and literary devices
- The descriptions are engaging and life-like

Children who do well will continue to revise their descriptions and use them in their written work as they go. When they find new words they add them to their descriptions to improve them.

WE WILL BE ASKING YOU TO IMPROVE AND DEVELOP YOUR DESCRIPTIONS BANK IN EACH PART OF THE COURSE.

Describing the natural world

Being able to describe the natural environment will help you when explaining the setting of your writing. Below are examples of what we could describe. If you have any other ideas then you can add them to the picture:

Description Banks

This is an example of how we build a child's description bank on a particular topic, in this case the Here are a few examp natural world. Throughout the course we emphasise how the marks are weighted in favour of writing which is simple, accurate, and uses an interesting

Using literary devices can aslo be particualry helpful when describing the natural world.

Have a look at the following examples:

- The wind roared around the house.
- The sea sparkled as the waves crashed into the cliff.
- The rain was as cold as ice.
- The garden was a jungle.

You should have by now re-written the task from last time after considering improvements. Keep up your efforts! The process of re-writing work throughout the course will enhance your writing performance considerably.

Now have a go at your next writing task. Have in your mind the ways you improved the last task, and think about how they might help you write a better descriptive piece at the first attempt this time.

The Technique

1) These questions are all about moving backwards and forwards in the alphabet. Always add ABCDEFG to the end of your alphabet and UVWXYZ to the beginning to help you move around quickly.

The question is not asking you to compare the fir comparing the first letter of the first pair to the first our example:

CG is to FM as QW is to __?

What is the relationship between C and F? The answer apply the same to the second section.

As QW is to __? From Q, 3 forwards is T so the first li

Then we do the same with the second letter. 3)

CG is to FM as QW is to T_?

We then provide practice questions as part of the technique development process, helping to ensure children have fully grasped it.

The relationship between G and M is forward 6, so the relationship between W and the answer is forward six. W + 6 = C

With multiple choice questions if only one answer option started with a T then that would be the correct one. (realising this may have saved time)

The BODMAS Rule

The rule for the order in which you conduct calculations is: BODMAS

This means:

Brackets Orders Division Multiplication Addition Subtraction.

In other words:

- 1. You must work out the sum in the Bracket first and then complete any Orders (this also means indices, powers, or roots e.g. 3²).
- 2. Next you must work out any Divison or Multiplication.
- 3. Finally complete any Addition or Subtraction required.

Remember - if a number appears immediately before a bracket it means you must Multiply (the result of the sum in the bracket) by that figure, so: 5(3.1 + 1.9) means $5 \times (3.1 + 1.9) = 5 \times 5 = 25$

Here is an example of the BODMAS rule in action:

= 12 - 3 This is another example of the focus we place = 9 ✓ on individual topic knowledge. For some children topics will be entirely new, for others it will act as useful re-enforcement.

Now look at the

$$6(2.36 + 5.62) =$$
 Do the Bracket sum first - 2.36 + 5.62 = 7.98
6 x 7.98 = 47.88 \checkmark Then Multiply

Please file this away safely because you will need to refer to it again.

1. LIKE SHAPES / TYPE 1

In these questions you will be given an example where one shape becomes another shape. You will then be given a question shape and be asked to choose which one of five shapes it should become. You should use the example to help you choose. You should look at the example and understand exactly what changes for it to become the second shape and then apply the same reasoning to the question shape.

What to look out for

As with all Non-Verbal Reasoning question types this is largely a test of logic and close observation.

- How many sides do the shapes have?
- Are they rotating, and if so in which direction and by how many decrees?
- Have the shapes g diagonal lines then
- What size are the
- shapes? Boldness i

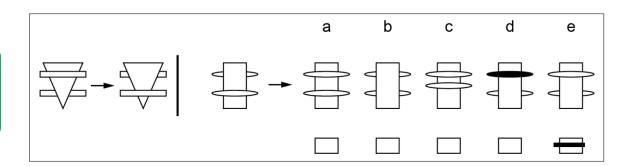

Are they reflection Non-Verbal Reasoning

We introduce each different type of non-verbal What thickness or reasoning question with a very detailed Do shapes that are explanation and an example, providing technique advice.

Technique tips

- Focus exactly on how the first shape has changed to become the second shape, more than one thing may have changed.
- Make a list of the changes if necessary.
- Once you have done this look at the answer options and see which has changed in the same way.
- Often you will be left with two options which are close, there will always be a small distinguishing item which makes one of these a closer match than the other (e.g. direction of diagonal lines within a shape). You will need to renew your focus to find it.
- Unless you are doing a timed test do one question at a time. Give your answer then check if it is correct and review the explanation. This takes time but looking at the answer and explanation while the question is still fresh is the only way to learn.

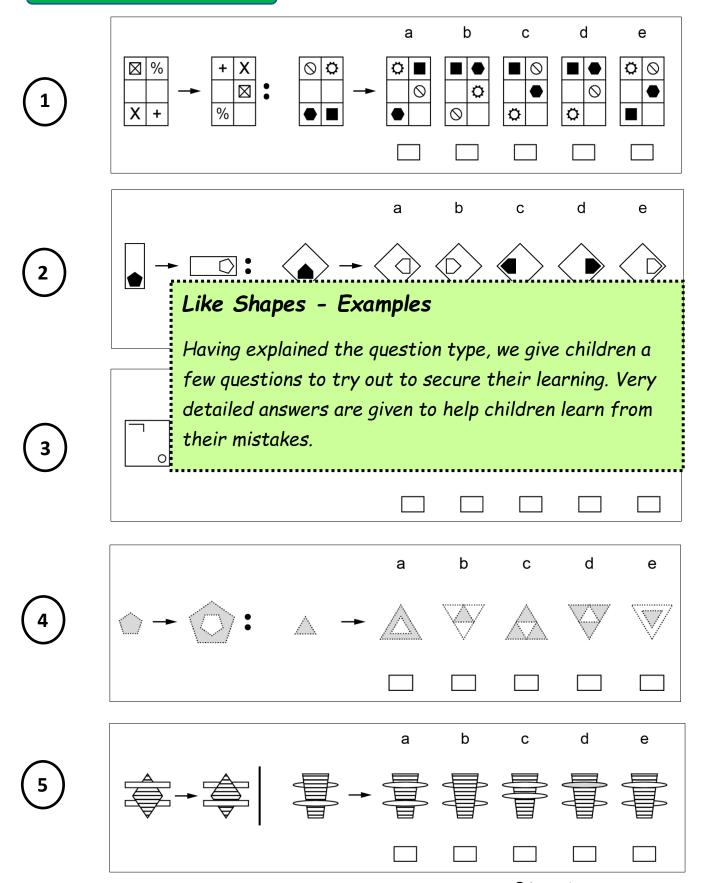

Example

Explanation

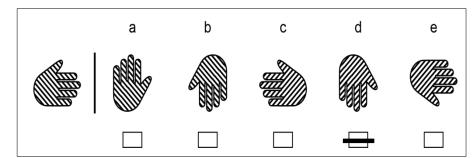

There is no change in the large shape from the first set of shapes to the second. However the shape that is behind the larger moves to the front and the other shape that is in front moves behind.

1. LIKE SHAPES / TYPE 1

3. ROTATIONS / TYPE 3

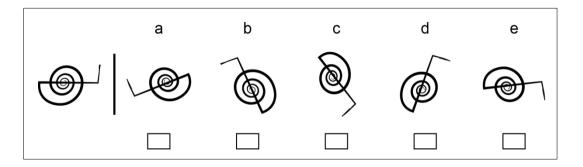

Example

Explanation

Timed Papers

Just under 15 timed papers are included in the course once children have mastered the basics of the main non-verbal reasoning question types. Some of the papers are shorter, focusing on technique and accuracy, whereas others replicate more closely the volume and speed of the 11 Plus exam.

This particular sheet is part of one of our longer tests of 27 questions.
