Mock exam structure

All of our mock exam packs start with a front sheet like this. It outlines the content and structure of the mock exam, which follows the same format and covers the same topics as the real exam. This mock exam is broken down into 3 papers: Maths, Verbal Reasoning and English. Each paper comes with the appropriate answer sheet and has answers provided at the end.

11 Plus Mock Exam Information- The Latymer School

Mock Papers Administration:

- 1. Set a date and time in advance to sit the mock paper (e.g., Next Saturday at 10:00am)
- 2. During the week remember to reference the upcoming date to build a little stress and tension. It is important children get used to the feeling of an approaching exam date.
- 3. The evening before, treat it as you would the actual exam. Think about early bedtime, relaxation, proper nutrition etc. Organise where the test will be taken the next day.
- 4. In the morning, treat it as you would the morning of the exam itself.
- 5. Read out the instructions as if you were the invigilator and follow the instructions throughout the test. These invigilator instructions are below.
- 6. If your child needs to go to the loo during the exam, keep the clock running. The clock will not pause in the exam hall for a loo break.

Invigilator instructions:

Paper 1:

- 1. Your child should be sat at a desk with Paper 1 and the corresponding answer sheets in front of them at least 5 minutes before the exam. This is an important part of emulating the actual exam and introducing your child to the feeling of tension that they will feel on the day of the real exam. Your child is not allowed a calculator for this exam.
- 2. Tell your child "Paper 1 consists of a 30-minute maths test and a 30-minute verbal reasoning test. All answers must be marked on the separate answer sheets provided."
- 3. 2 minutes before the time you have set to begin the exam, tell your child "The exam will begin in 2 minutes."
- 4. At the time set to begin the exam, tell your child, "You and begin the Maths test. You have 30-minutes".
- After 15 minutes, tell your child, "You are halfway thro You have 15 minutes left".
- After another 10 minutes, tell your child, "You have 5 paper".
- Once these 5 minutes have elapsed, say, "That is the Please stop writing and turn over the page. You now prepare yourself for the verbal reasoning test and reasoning
- 8. After 2 minutes, tell your child, "You may now turn over the verbal reasoning test. You have 30 minutes".
- 9. After 15 minutes, tell your child, "You are halfway thro Reasoning paper. You have 15 minutes left".

Invigilation notes

We take great care to provide detailed instructions and invigilation notes for every paper. This will enable your child to have a realistic mock exam experience from home.

Section A: Comprehension – 30 minutes

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

This text is an adapted version of Dracula by Bram Stoker.

- 1 When I found that I was a prisoner a sort of wild feeling came over me. I rushed up and down the stairs, trying every door and peering out of every window I could find; but after a little the conviction of my helplessness over provored all athen fooling and When I look back after a few hours I think I must have Enclice comprehend
- 5 behaved much as a rat does in a trap. When, however me that I was helpless I sat down quietly - as quietly a in my life - and began to think over what was best to b as yet have come to no definite conclusion. Of one thi no use making my ideas known to the Count. He know
- 10 and as he has done it himself, and has doubtless his only deceive me if I trusted him fully with the facts. So far as I can see, my only plan will be to keep my knowledge and my fears to myself, and my eyes open. I am, I know, either being deceived, like a baby, by my own fears, or else I am in desperate straits; and if the latter be so, I need, and shall need, all my brains to get
- 15 through.

I had hardly come to this conclusion when I heard the great door below shut, and knew that the Count had returned. He did not come at once to the library, so I went cautiously to my own room and found him making the bed. This was odd, but only confirmed what I had all along thought - that there were no servants in the house.

- 20 When later I saw him through the chink of the hinges of the door laying the table in the dining-room, I was assured of it; for if he does himself all these menial offices, surely it is proof that there is no one else to do them. This gave me a fright, for if there is no one else in the castle, it must have been the Count himself who was the driver of the coach that brought me here. This is a terrible thought; for if so, what
- 25 does it mean that he could control the wolves, as he did, by only holding up his hand in silence. How was it that all the people at Bistritz and on the coach had some terrible fear for me? What meant the giving of the crucifix, of the garlic, of the wild rose, of the mountain ash? Bless that good, good woman who hung the crucifix round my neck! for it is a comfort and a strength to me whenever I touch it. It is odd

A letter from Count Dracula's prisoner

Dear Mum and Dad,

I hope this letter finds you in good health. I am writing to you from a very strange place that I never imagined I would be in. I am currently a prisoner of Count Dracula, the famous vampire! I know it sounds scary, but don't worry, I have a plan to escape!

Let me tell you about where I am. The Count's castle is like something out of a spooky storybook. It's really old and looks very mysterious. The walls are made of cold, gray stone, and there are cobwebs everywhere. The ceilings are incredibly high, and the floors are creaky. The castle is surrounded by a dark forest that seems to go on forever. It's really creepy, especially at night when the moon is full and casts eerie shadows.

Now, let me describe Count Dracula himself. He is tall and thin with pale skin that seems almost translucent. He has slicked back black hair and sharp, pointy teeth

I'm planning to wait for the right moment when the Count is busy, and then I'll sneak into the library and find the hidden passage. I believe it will lead me outside the castle, and from there, I'll find my way back home.

Please don't worry too much, Mom and Dad. I'm doing everything I can to stay safe and find a way out of here. I hope to see you all very soon. Take care of yourselves and know that I love you very much!

Your brave and determined child,

Toby
